STATEMENT ON EUROPEAN UNION RoHS RECAST DIRECTIVE 2011/65/EU AND DELEGATED DIRECTIVE 2015/863 CONCERNING
RESTRICTION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES (RoHS)

Steel Dynamics, Inc. –Structural & Rail Division (SDI) is not regulated under RoHS for its domestic shipments of steel products, but understands that its customers may benefit from having this information. The information provided below is based on commercially reasonable efforts and applies to substances included as of the Policy date listed below. Concentration levels are based upon the total weight of the steel products at the time they ship from SDI.

Directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS Recast or RoHS 2)

RoHS Recast restricts the use of the following six hazardous substances in the manufacture of various types of electrical and electronic equipment at maximum concentration values tolerated by weight in homogeneous materials: lead – 0.1%; mercury – 0.1%; cadmium – 0.01%; hexavalent chromium – 0.1%; polybrominated biphenyls (PBB) – 0.1%; and polybrominated diphenyl ethers (PBDE) – 0.1%.

To the best of SDI's belief and based upon information currently available, the steel products as shipped from SDI's facility do not contain any of these six substances above the relevant concentration or beyond the relevant scope of restriction.

Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863 (RoHS 3)

Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863 is not scheduled to become effective until July 22, 2019. Directive 2015/863 will restrict the use of the following four additional hazardous substances: bis(2-ethylhexyl) phthalate (DEHP) – 0.1%; butyl benzyl phthalate (BBP) – 0.1%; dibutyl phthalate (DBP) – 0.1%; and diisobutyl phthalate (DIBP) – 0.1%.

To the best of SDI's belief and based upon information currently available, the steel products as shipped from SDI's facility do not contain any these four substances above the relevant concentration or beyond the relevant scope of restriction.

This information is provided to and may be relied upon only by the party who purchased the products directly from SDI. If you have any further questions regarding the products produced by SDI, please contact the sales representative assigned to your account. We appreciate and value your business.
